HANDICRAFT MARKET TAVALO

FULL DAY EXCURSION ON A SHARED BASIS

Located about two hours north from Quito, the town of Otavalo is home to one of the most famous handicrafts markets in South America. Every Saturday, the market place fills with a spectacular display of bright colors, and visitors can bargain their way out for handmade carpets, hammocks and other unique ecuadorian handicrafts.

The town itself is located on the side of Yaguarcocha Lagoon, visible before arriving in town from a lookout that offers an impressive view of the andean valley, its different shades of greens and the lake that lies in its bottom.

On the way back to Quito, stop at the town of Cuicocha, another popular destination that became famous for its confection of leather items.

This journey offers a closer look at Ecuadorian traditions and cultural heritage passed from generations to generations.

COTOPAXI

BIKING TOUR

BIKING DOWNHILL COTOPAXI NATIONAL PARK ON A SHARED BASIS

Located about two hours south from Quito, Cotopaxi National Park is a true paradise for any adventurer looking for thrills and wildlife discovery.

Leaving early in the morning, you will be dropped at an altitude higher than 4000 meters to start your descent along the side of the highest active volcano in the world.

Always monitored during your activity, you'll be able to enjoy the sight of wild horses, llamas and protected condors in total safety.

Biking in such an arid lunar landscape is a unique physical experience made for in-shape people not afraid of challenge in a remote place and looking for a great time.

DOES NOT INCLUDE COTOPAXI
NATIONAL PARK ENTRANCE FEE (USD12)

O BIKING TOUR TAVALO

BIKING OTAVALO ON A SHARED BASIS

In a less arid landscape than Cotopaxi National Park, discover the beautiful areas surrounding the town of Otavalo, biking through different shades of greens and lunching in a typical hacienda on the side of a volcano.

A softer experience for any visitors interested in discovering the Andes from a more adventurer point of view.

Your biking tour finishes in Otavalo, where a display of colorful handicrafts will be waiting for you.
